

VOLUME 91 • NUMBER 1 • SPRING 2002

NATIONAL CIVIC REVIEW

MAKING CITIZEN DEMOCRACY WORK

IN THIS ISSUE

Issues in Local Government Structure and Performance

Christopher T. Gates
President, National Civic League

Robert Loper
Editor

A Publication of the National Civic League and Jossey-Bass

NATIONAL CIVIC REVIEW (ISSN 0027-9013) is published quarterly by Wiley Subscription Services, Inc., a Wiley company, at Jossey-Bass, 989 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94103-1741, and the National Civic League, 1445 Market Street, Suite 300, Denver, CO 80202-1717. NCL, founded in 1894 as the National Municipal League, advocates a new civic agenda to create communities that work for everyone. NCL is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, non-partisan educational association of individuals and organizations. NCL members have access to the information and services necessary to improve community life. For complete information, contact Derek Okubo, (303) 571-4343.

COPYRIGHT © 2002 Wiley Periodicals, Inc., a Wiley company. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, scanning, or otherwise, except as permitted under Sections 107 or 108 of the 1976 United States Copyright Act, without either the prior written permission of the Publisher or authorization through payment of the appropriate per-copy fee to the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA 01923, (978) 750-8400, fax (978) 750-4744. Requests to the Publisher for permission should be addressed to the Permissions Department, c/o John Wiley & Sons, Inc., 605 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10158-0012; (212) 850-6011, fax (212) 850-6008, e-mail: permreq@wiley.com

INDEXED in Public Affairs Information Service, ABC POL SCI, and Book Review Index.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are $55.00 per year for individuals and $105.00 per year for institutions. To order subscriptions, single issues, or reprints, please refer to the Ordering Information page at the back of this issue.

PERIODICALS postage paid at San Francisco, California, and at additional mailing offices. POSTMASTER: send address changes to National Civic Review, Jossey-Bass Inc., 989 Market Street, San Francisco, CA 94103-1741.

NCL MEMBERS send change of address to Debbie Gettings, National Civic League, 1445 Market Street, Suite 300, Denver, CO 80202-1717.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE should be sent to Robert Loper, National Civic League, 1319 F Street NW, Suite 204, Washington, DC 20004.

www.josseybass.com

Printed in the United States of America on acid-free recycled paper containing 100 percent recovered waste paper, of which at least 20 percent is post-consumer waste.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. National Civic Review welcomes letters to the editor. Write to National Civic Review, 1319 F Street, Suite 204, Washington, DC 20004, or send e-mail to robert@ncldc.org. Please include your name, address, and telephone number.

C O N T E N T S

NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT Christopher T. Gates	1
ARTICLES
The Roles of the City Council and Implications for the Structure of City Government James H. Svara	5
The trend toward greater activism by the city council is changing the respective roles of council and city manager. This article frames an analysis of these changes using a typology of council models.
An Institutional Perspective on Mayoral Leadership: Linking Leadership Style to Formal Structure Craig M. Wheeland	25
This contribution to a theory of mayoral leadership refines existing distinctions in leadership style by introducing subtypes for executive and facilitative styles on the basis of an analysis of mayoral character- istics in the forty most populous cities in the United States.
Assessing the CAO Position in a Strong-Mayor Government Kimberly L. Nelson	41
The role of chief administrative officer (CAO) in mayor-council gov- ernment varies widely. This study analyzes the characteristics of CAOs (or their equivalent) in the twenty-six most populous U.S. cities hav- ing a mayor-council government and compares them with those of city managers.
Municipal Charters Lawrence F. Keller	55
The municipal charter is the constitution for local government. This article reviews the historical significance of the municipal charter and its continuing relevance for public life in the United States.
Regionalism in Metropolitan Chicago: A Work in Progress David K. Hamilton	63
This assessment of regional government in metropolitan Chicago focuses on two organizations, Metropolis 2020 and the Metropolitan Mayors Council, and identifies areas for further improvement.
The National Civic Congress: A Proposal for Movement Building Carmen Sirianni, Lewis A. Friedland	81
The civic renewal movement encompasses an array of groups, causes, and activities. As a means of both recognizing these efforts and over- coming potential obstacles to the movement's growth and impact, this article calls for an annual event to celebrate accomplishments and share achievements.

Ted Halstead, Michael Lind

The technological changes being ushered in by the Information Age will have lasting effects on the public, private, and nonprofit sectors of American society. In this article, the authors consider the prospective impact of these developments on civil society and highlight challenges dealing with race, intergenerational differences, and the possibilities presented by genetic engineering.